PART 3

You are a new student in the 'Conversational German Course' and you are in the chat room. You are talking to Heather, an old student in this course. Talk to her using complete sentences. Use 30 to 40 words per answer. You have 10 minutes.

Heather: Hello! Are you a new student? I started three months ago because I want to go to work in Germany. Why are you studying German?

You:

Heather: What do you think about the course?

You:

Heather: How do you feel about the fact that none of our teachers is native?

You:

PART 4

You are studying German in the 'Conversational German Course'. After your last lesson you saw the notice below:

Dear students,

We are sorry to inform you that from next week we need to change the time of the lessons: now they will be held every Thursday and Friday from 15.00 to 18.00.

If you have any comments or suggestions, please feel free to email us at studentsupport@german.com

Write an e-mail to a fellow-student explaining what has happened. Write your feelings about the message you received and suggest possible alternatives. Write about 50 words. You have 10 minutes.

Now, write an email to the language school management, showing your disagreement with the situation and asking for solutions and compensations. Write about 120-150 words. You have 20 minutes.
